Southbrook House, Brook Street, Bishops Waltham, SO32 1AX

Description

The property is a detached Listed building, nicely presented with many original features. The property provided a range of office accommodation on ground, first and second floors with predominantly cellular office space over the ground and first floor plus ancillary accommodation on the third plus a small basement.

The property is fitted gas fired central heating, carpeting throughout, separate ladies & gents w.c.'s, staff kitchen and a range of florescent and spot lighting throughout.

The property has been very sensitively and recently decorated both internally and externally and provides very attractive, well maintained accommodation.

Location

Bishops Waltham is an attractive market town strategically located to the north east of Southampton and north west of Portsmouth, principally approached via Fareham and the A32, off the M27 trunk route.

Southbrook House is located on the fringe of the town centre, within close proximity to the retailing sector and other leisure facilities provided within Bishops Waltham and within close proximity to a local car park.
