Description

The unit provides a versatile industrial space tailored to accommodate a wide range of operational requirements. The warehouse boasts expansive dimensions with high ceilings and robust concrete flooring, perfectly suited for both extensive storage and efficient manufacturing processes.

For seamless logistics management, the unit features a covered loading bay, ensuring operations continue unhindered regardless of weather conditions. Moreover, its substantial secure yard area provides ample room for vehicle manoeuvring and supplementary storage requirements, enhancing overall operational flexibility and security.

Location

Rippleside Commercial Estate is strategically positioned along Ripple Road in Barking, a location renowned for its pivotal role in regional transportation networks. Ripple Road, intersecting with Renwick Road, stands as a vital artery connecting various key destinations.

Situated near the A13, Ripple Road facilitates seamless access to Rainham, Thurrock, and the M25 Motorway, ensuring efficient regional connectivity for logistics and distribution operations. Additionally, its proximity to the junction with the A406 (North Circular Road) enables straightforward routes to Beckton, while also offering direct access to Docklands and the City of London, enhancing accessibility to major commercial hubs.

This prime location along Ripple Road in Barking not only benefits from its strategic transport links but also offers a thriving business environment supported by nearby amenities and infrastructure, making it an ideal choice for industrial and warehouse activities.
