Description

Martinique House is more than just an office it's where businesses come to grow, thrive, and succeed. Originally built as the residence for the Commanding Officer of the Martinique Barracks, this historic and characterful building has been transformed into a dynamic business hub. With nine office spaces and two workshops, it's ideal for businesses looking for flexibility, convenience, and a strong support network.

At SiGNAL, they believe no one should build a business alone. When you base your business at Martinique House, you're not just getting an office you're joining a thriving community of like minded entrepreneurs. With monthly networking events, a dedicated support team, and exclusive access to My BiZHUB, their online platform for collaboration and business growth, you'll have everything you need to succeed. If you're serious about growing your business in a flexible, well-connected, and inspiring environment, Martinique House is where you need to be.

Location

Located in the heart of Bordon, Martinique House is just a short walk from Café 1759, The Shed, Tesco, and Hogmoor Distillery, giving you easy access to everything you need. Whether you're grabbing a coffee with a client, hosting a team meeting, or networking with fellow entrepreneurs, the area is designed to support your success.

Terms

Flexible office space with all inclusive pricing (excluding business rates, eligible for 100% rates relief).
