Location

Bridge Court, located on Bridge Street in the heart of Evesham, offers a charming and convenient setting just a short walk from the town's historic riverside and local amenities. This development combines modern living with traditional market town character, providing easy access to shops, restaurants, and public transport links.

Description

The property is a charming Grade II listed building, featuring classic sash window frames and a slate roof. The ground floor offers a well-proportioned retail space, suitable for a variety of uses including a tea room, restaurant, ice cream parlour, waffle house, craft centre, haberdashery, or information centre.

The upper floors provide characterful office accommodation with exposed beams and could, subject to planning permission, be converted to residential use. A kitchen and toilet are already in place on the ground floor.

Tenure

The property is available Freehold currently to be sold with vacant possession.

VAT

The building is VAT not elected.
