about

rare opportunity to acquire a freehold site of 0.28 acres in the heart of west hampstead, comprising characterful industrial buildings of 10,119 sq ft.

including a two-storey, brick built late 19th century warehouse with large and attractively proportioned timber-framed, multi-paned windows on three of its elevations and a pitched, tiled roof.

the single-storey 20th century warehouses have a mixture of pitched and saw tooth roof forms and employ roof lights extensively to bring light into their interiors

location

the site is situated between west hampstead overground and underground stations
