Location

9 York Place occupies a prominent position on one of Leeds city centre’s most established professional addresses, immediately adjacent to the Headrow. The property sits at the heart of the city’s commercial and civic quarter, surrounded by a strong mix of legal, financial, public sector and corporate occupiers.

The location benefits from excellent connectivity, with Leeds Train Station within comfortable walking distance, providing direct mainline services to London, Manchester and other major UK cities.

Description

The property comprises an attractive four-storey Georgian-style building providing office accommodation on ground and 3 upper floors. The building has undergone a substantial refurbishment and provides very good quality office accommodation. The third floor office is self-contained and benefits from integrated WC and kitchen facilities.
