Description

The accommodation comprises a terraced unit of steel frame construction with brick elevations under a pitched roof. The property has a useful mezzanine storage over say 50% with the remainder open to the eaves.

Location

Basingstoke is 45 miles to the southwest of London adjacent to Junctions 6 & 7 of the M3 motorway. The M4 and Reading can be easily accessed via the A33. There is also a frequent rail service to London Waterloo, timetabled at 45 minutes. Basingstoke, with a borough population of approximately 185,000, is a major centre for commerce and industry, having attracted several international and national companies, enjoying the benefits of a diverse range of leisure/recreational facilities and the new highly acclaimed Festival Place shopping centre.

The Rutherford Centre, constructed in the mid 1980s, is located within the Daneshill Industrial Estate area to the northeast of Basingstoke and comprises a modern terrace of 10 warehouse/industrial units. The development is within one minute's drive of the ring road and the A33 Basingstoke to Reading Road, and about 1½ miles to Junction 6 of the M3 motorway.
