Description

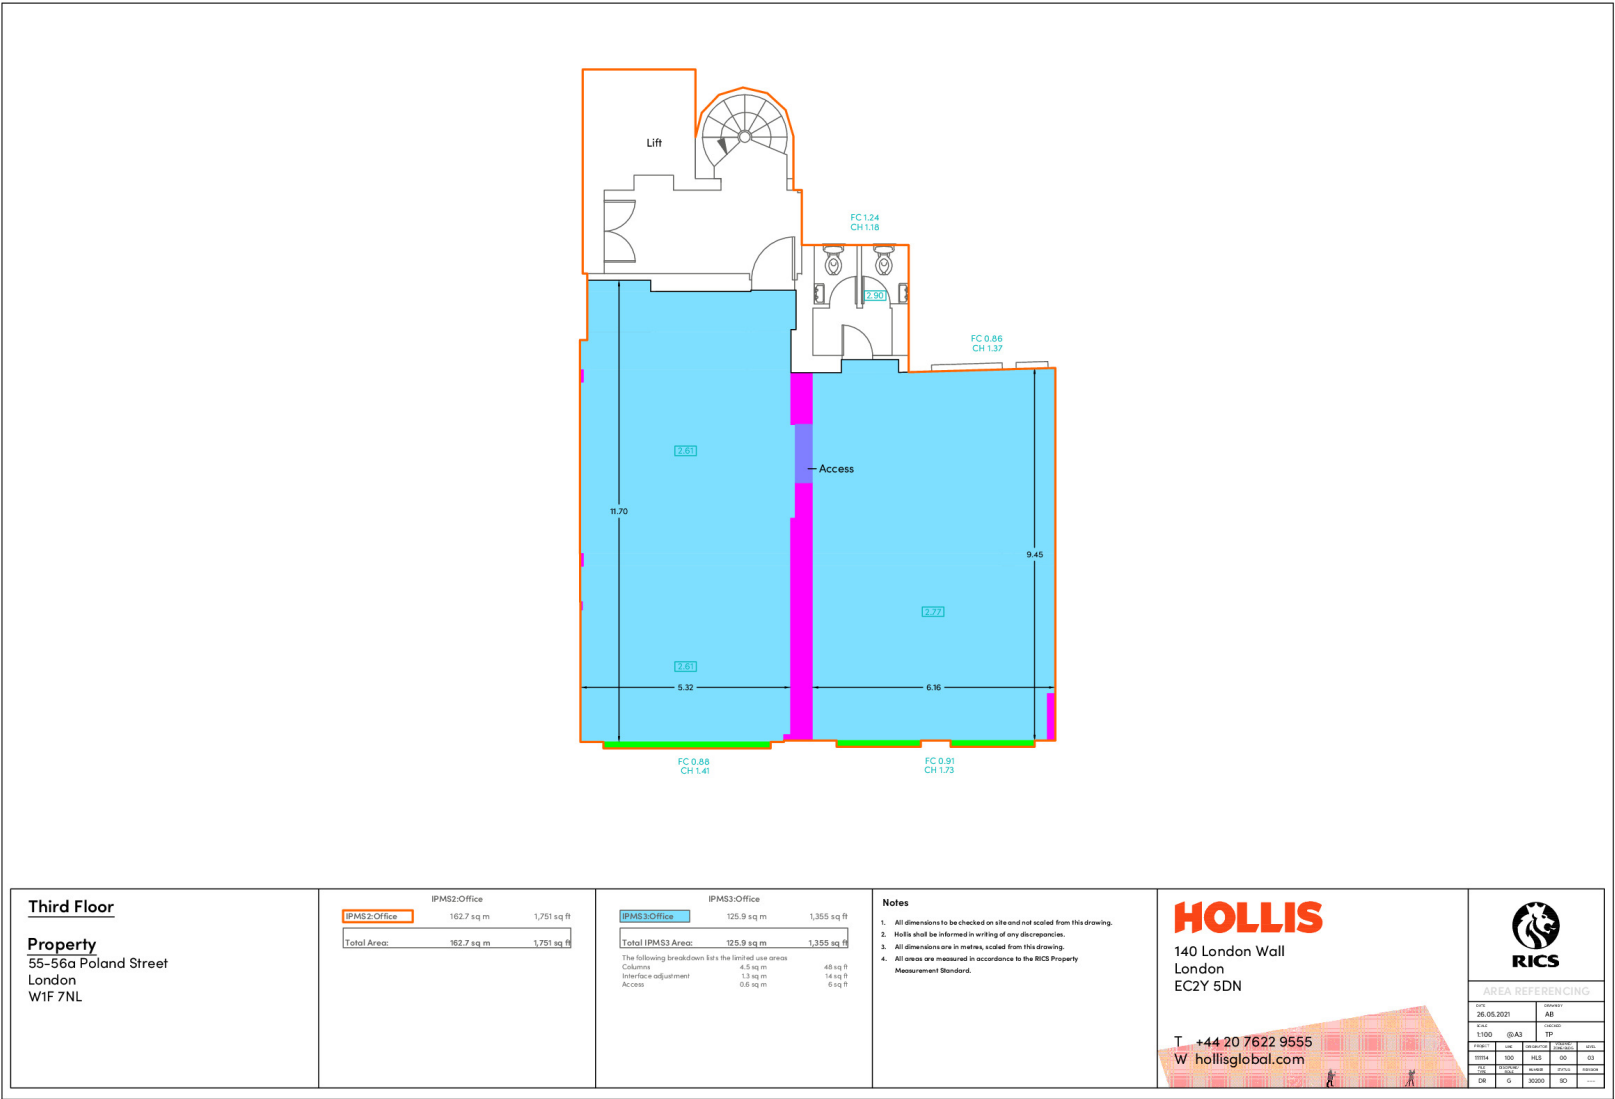

Situated in Oxford Circus, W1, this fully fitted office offers high-quality, ready-to-occupy workspace in the heart of the West End. The accommodation benefits from excellent natural light throughout, creating a bright and comfortable working environment. A well-considered layout includes multiple meeting rooms, a spacious boardroom, and a private phone booth, supporting a range of business needs from collaborative working to confidential calls. The building is served by a passenger lift, ensuring convenient access for staff and visitors. Combining a prime central location with a comprehensive fit-out, this office provides a practical and efficient solution for occupiers seeking immediate presence in W1.

Location

Located in the heart of the West End, this office benefits from exceptional connectivity and a wealth of nearby amenities. Oxford Circus station is just moments away, providing direct access to the Central, Victoria and Bakerloo lines, while Bond Street station and Tottenham Court Road station are also within easy walking distance, offering additional Underground and Elizabeth line services across London and beyond. The surrounding area offers an extensive range of cafés, restaurants, retail outlets and everyday services, all accessible on foot, making it a highly practical and well-connected central London location.
