Description

2 Dukes Place is a newly refurbished first-floor office situated on Marlow High Street. Access is via the rear, where one allocated car parking space is available. There is a flight of steps leading to the first-floor office. One WC is provided on the landing. When entering the office, it benefits from good natural light and new carpets. A kitchenette is provided. The landlord is currently investigating options to install air conditioning. A telecom system is in place.

Location

Marlow is an affluent riverside town, conveniently located with great access to both the M40 and M4 motorways via the A404. 2 Dukes Place benefits from being situated in the heart of the town centre close to all the amenities on offer including an eclectic mix of national and independent retailers, banks, bars and restaurants. It is a short walk away from outside space at Higginson Park and the River Thames. Marlow Train Station is approximately a 10-minute walk with frequent services to Maidenhead, where Elizabeth and GWR services are provided.
