Location

Ashurst Lodge is conveniently located in the New Forest along Southampton Road (A35) between Southampton & Lyndhurst with good road links to other surrounding towns and cities including Ringwood, Bournemouth, Poole and Winchester. Ashurst Train Station is just a four-minute drive away, providing direct links to London Waterloo and Southampton. The property is set within 14 acres of enviable landscaped grounds within the heart of the New Forest.

Description

The opportunity provides well presented ground floor office/workshop plus a first floor office. Additional benefits include a ground floor kitchen/break out area as well as ample parking spaces on the site. There is an additional office available upon request at an additional charge, making the whole building available to lease.

There is a fixed service charge to cover the maintenance of external and common areas and utilities. Extra meeting rooms can be made available for use in the main building, by way of separate charge, by appointment only.
