Description

The DepOZitory comprises a former Wesleyan chapel which was comprehensively refurbished some years ago. The property has in the past been used as an entertainment venue which provides artist studios and display/galleries. The property, which is a detached three storey building, comprises a basement currently used for storage and displaying artwork.

The ground floor comprises six workshops and artist display area. The first floor comprises two further workshops and 200m2 exhibition space with stunning views across the Solent.

Location

The DepOZitory is located a 2 minute walk from Ryde esplanade railway station to the north which connects to the mainline (Portsmouth) via the hovercraft and catamaran. Train to London approx 90 minutes. Ryde town centre to the north is approximately 5 minutes walk. The town of Ryde provides shopping centres, restaurants, pubs as well as an attractive seafront and miles of sandy beaches and enjoys a vibrant Arts and Culture Ethos.
