Location

A prominently positioned retail unit formerly occupied by Barnardos charity shop, situated in Runcorn Town Centre.

The premises occupy a central position within this retail thoroughfare in the main shopping area.

Runcorn is an important commercial centre, just off the A533 Runcorn Expressway, with a main line rail station and the Mersey Gateway Bridge, which conveniently links the towns of Widnes and Liverpool.

Description

The property comprises a substantial mid-terrace retail building, that is arranged over two large floor plates.

The property boasts a prime high street location within Runcorn Old Town, where national multiple occupiers, Savers and Card Factory are next door and other surrounding retailers include Costa, William Hill, Greggs and Dominoes.

The unit itself provides large open plan space to the ground and first floors, including wc and kitchen facilities.

Externally the frontage is directly onto the pavement, with on-street parking opposite. To the rear there is loading access via a vehicular service road.

Barnardo's are due to vacate in June 2026 and the unit will be available from 1 July 2026.
