THE PROPERTY

The available accommodation comprises a well-presented office suite within a detached building, benefiting from its own dedicated entrance to the front elevation.

Access to the office is via a personnel door leading into a reception area, providing a professional and welcoming entrance for staff and visitors. The office space offers a practical layout suitable for a range of business uses.

Externally, the property benefits from a generous car park to the front, providing ample on-site parking for employees and visitors. The office is self-contained from the adjoining warehouse, offering occupiers a distinct and functional working environment within a larger, well-maintained commercial building.
