LOCATION

Gloucester Vantage Point Business Village is a well-established 67-acre commercial estate located in Mitcheldean, Gloucestershire, on the western edge of the Forest of Dean. The property benefits from strong road connections, situated approximately 7 miles south of Junction 3 of the M50 and around 15.7 miles west of Junction 11 and 11A of the M5, providing convenient access to the Midlands, South West and South Wales. The estate accommodates a wide mix of office, studio and industrial occupiers and is home to over 100 businesses, creating an established and active business environment supported by a skilled local workforce.

DESCRIPTION

The office accommodation is situated on the second floor and comprises a spacious open-plan working area, complemented by several glass-fronted private offices/meeting rooms and a dedicated comms room. The suite is finished to a high specification, featuring carpeted flooring, suspended ceilings, double-glazed windows, modern LED lighting, and zoned air conditioning throughout.

The space is currently fitted with office furniture, which can either be retained by an incoming occupier or removed to meet specific requirements. The layout and specification make the suite particularly well-suited to call centre operations or similar business uses. Additional benefits include lift access, shared WC facilities, and ample on-site parking.

Occupiers will also have access to excellent ancillary amenities, including an on-site gym and café.
