Description

2 Curfew Yard consists of a lower ground floor, upper ground floor and first floor. To the front, there is space for external seating. Access is gained through the front on the upper ground floor. Internally, the property is currently fitted out for use as a café. On the upper ground floor, there is a shop counter area, a small bay window overlooking the rear, and a room with large seating with double-glazed windows looking out into the courtyard. A wooden staircase leads you to the first floor. The first floor has a small storage room, a WC, and another room used as seating, with two small built-in storage cupboards. On the landing, bespoke large storage cabinets are installed. On the lower ground floor, it has been fitted as a kitchen. There is a fire exit leading you to the rear courtyard.

Location

Windsor is a historic town positioned in the eastern region of Berkshire. The High Street & Thames Street are positioned opposite Windsor Castle, providing a historic setting. There are a variety of amenities within walking distance such as Mark and Spencer's, Waitrose, Heidis and Snap Fitness. Together with all the tourist attractions, such as Windsor Castle and the River Thames, it provides a charming environment. Windsor is strategically positioned near major road networks with easy access to the A308, which navigates to Maidenhead and Marlow, with the addition of the M4 heading towards Heathrow, which is approximately 20 minutes. Windsor and Eton Central train station is approximately a 3-minute walk, with trains to Slough leaving every 20 minutes. Elizabeth Line and Great Western Railway services take approximately 20 minutes to reach Slough and London Paddington.
