Pontardulais Presbyterian Chapel, St Teilo Street, Pontardulais, Swansea, SA4 8LH

LOCATION

The property is situated on St. Teilo Street within the established settlement of Pontardulais, Swansea, occupying a predominantly residential position with surrounding uses comprising a mixture of residential dwellings, community buildings and localised commercial occupiers.

Pontardulais itself is a well-established suburban/community location situated approximately 10 miles north-west of Swansea city centre.

The property occupies an established position from the main road, accessed via a gated driveway, whilst still benefiting from reasonable prominence and accessibility within the local area.

Road communications within the area are considered reasonable, with convenient access available to the wider Swansea region via the A48 and Junction 48 of the M4 motorway located a short distance to the south. Pontardulais town centre and associated local amenities are situated within convenient proximity of the property.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a detached place of worship, situated along a prominent main road position, within a relatively large site, which is located within the popular settlement of Pontardulais.

The building itself comprises a traditional former chapel, measuring approximately 205.10 sq.m (2,207.69 sq. ft.) in total, which is arranged over ground floor with gallery seating at first floor/mezzanine level. Internally, the original chapel building provides the main worship hall/nave with fixed pew seating, raised pulpit/stage area over the majority of its floor area.

The main nave is also supported by ancillary accommodation to the rear, together with access to the upper gallery areas positioned to either side and rear, to approximately 25% of its floor area. The ancillary accommodation is arranged over two single storey additions to the rear, comprising additional kitchen facilities, the minister's room and supporting w.c. facilities.

Externally, the subject premises is located within a relatively large site, extending to approximately 0.249 acres (0.101 hectare) in total.

To the rear of the property is an enclosed external yard/parking area of generally level topography, providing informal parking, circulation and ancillary external space. The area is predominantly surfaced in compacted stone and gravel together with sections of hardstanding and tarmac.

Additional outbuildings are also located externally to the rear of the original chapel building, comprising a small storage unit together with an adjoining external toilet cubicle.
