LOCATION

Units 3 and 11 at Advantage Business Park enjoy a strategic and accessible location on Spring Lane South in Malvern, one of Worcestershire's most established business hubs. Positioned just off the A449 Worcester Road, the business park offers excellent road connectivity to Worcester, the M5 (Junction 7), and the wider Midlands motorway network, while also providing convenient access to Hereford and South Wales.

Malvern town centre is within easy reach, offering a range of retail, leisure, and amenity provision, and Great Malvern railway station provides direct links to Worcester, Birmingham and London. Set against the backdrop of the Malvern Hills, the location combines strong transport links with an attractive working environment, making it highly appealing to both occupiers and employees alike.

DESCRIPTION

The property is situated within the well-established Advantage Business Park and comprises an industrial unit of steel portal frame construction to the rear, beneath a pitched roof, complemented by an attractive glazed office frontage with a flat roof. The warehouse is accessed via a roller shutter door measuring approximately 2.85m (h) x 3.67m (w) and offers a clear internal working height of 3.48m, supported by LED lighting, a separate pedestrian door and a dedicated loading apron.

The office accommodation is predominantly open plan, fitted to a good standard with gas central heating, carpeting, suspended ceilings and LED lighting, together with kitchenette and WC facilities. Externally, the property benefits from generous on-site parking and is positioned within a secure, well-maintained business park environment.
