Location

Carlton Square Shopping Centre is located within the wider suburb of Carlton, a busy and popular area of Nottingham and lies approximately 3 miles east of the City Centre. The shopping centre is located a short distance from Colwick Loop Road (A612), which provides access to the A60.

Description

The shopping centre has recently undergone a full refurbishment and public realm improvements. These works include new paving, spot lighting and planters and benches within the main walkway of the centre. Carlton Square is the primary shopping facility for the local community which is also served by a large Tesco Supermarket directly adjacent to the scheme.

Carlton Square provides a strong mix of local and multiple national occupiers including Papa John's and Farmfoods as well as a cafe, laundrette and bar. Farmfoods underwent a full refurbishment and extension of the store in March 2024 to over 14,000 sqft. The centre is also home to DBH House a residential building containing a total of 45 apartments, providing a mix of 1, 2 and 3 bed flats.

Each unit benefits from a fully glazed frontage and electrically operated roller shutter door, well proportioned sales area with stores and staff toilet facilities to the rear.

Rear loading is available via a manual roller shutter door from the service yard and there is significant parking provisions surrounding the shopping centre with a total of 73 car parking spaces available for free for up to two hours.
