Description

The available accommodation consists of a new unit providing excellent ground floor retail space. The unit is suitable for a range of uses within Class E and benefits from a highly visible frontage within the town centre.

The property forms part of the Parkside Apartments residential redevelopment which will see the former Swain and Jones site comprehensively redeveloped to provide 23 modern apartments alongside the new commercial unit.

The unit is expected to be ready for occupation in Q1 2027.

Location

Farnham is an affluent market town in Surrey, located approximately 36 miles south-west of London within the Borough of Waverley. The town benefits from strong transport connections, with Farnham mainline railway station providing regular South Western Railway services between Alton and London Waterloo.

The subject property is situated in a prominent town centre position, in close proximity to a wide range of national and independent retailers, cafés and restaurants. The property is within walking distance of key amenities, including Lidl and the new Brightwells Yard town centre redevelopment.

Terms

The property is available by way of a new full repairing and insuring lease for a term to be agreed.

Anti-Money Laundering
