Description

An attractive income-producing investment opportunity situated on Iverson Road, West Hampstead. The property has recently been let to an established dental practice on a brand new 15-year lease, producing a secure rental income of £75,000 per annum. The long-term letting provides investors with an attractive income stream and the benefit of a strong occupational covenant.

Further details, including the full investment terms, are available upon request.

Location

West Hampstead is a vibrant and well-established North West London neighbourhood, offering an attractive mix of independent cafés, restaurants, shops and leisure amenities alongside excellent transport connections.

Iverson Road is particularly well located, with West Hampstead Thameslink station directly on the road, providing regular services across London and direct connections to Gatwick and Luton Airports.

West Hampstead Underground station is also within a short walk, providing access to the Jubilee Line with direct services to Baker Street, Bond Street, Westminster, London Bridge and Canary Wharf, while West Hampstead Overground offers further connections across the capital.

Finchley Road Underground station, serving the Jubilee and Metropolitan lines, is also within easy reach.
