Description

22-24 King Street comprises a ground-floor retail unit, first- and second-floor offices, and a flat in the rear. The shop is currently let to a Subway franchise, which has recently undergone a rebranding. The first-floor office is currently vacant, with the second-floor office occupied. Communal WCs are on the landings on the first and second floors. To the rear, there is a flat sold on a long leasehold. Three allocated car parking spaces are provided in an undercroft below the flat. Please see the attached tenancy schedule for full details.

Location

22-24 King Street is well located in the heart of Maidenhead town centre and approx. 3 minutes' walk to the rail station. Crossrail is coming to Maidenhead which will provide fast rail links to central London. The entrance to the Nicholson's shopping centre is opposite the building, providing excellent amenities. Junction 8/9 of the M4 Motorway is approximately 1.5 miles drive. Heathrow airport is approximately 15 miles drive.
