Location

Staverton is a semi-rural Wiltshire village located approximately 2 miles north of Trowbridge and 3 miles east of Bradford-on-Avon. The village is positioned between the B3105 and B3106 within close proximity to the River Avon. The pub fronts New Terrace Road (B3105) and benefits from existing trade from nearby towns and villages such as Bradford-on-Avon, Trowbridge, Melksham, Holt and Hilpertion.

Accommodation

The Old Bear Inn is a Grade II listed two storey property of stone construction beneath a pitched slate roof with single storey extensions to the rear. The ground floor comprises a central servery with interlinking bar and restaurant areas accommodating 50 covers. There is a further function room area with a dedicated servery for a further 60 covers. Ancillary areas comprise two sets of customer WCs, large catering kitchen and prep room, cold beer store, dry store and a boiler cupboard. The private accommodation is located on the first floor and includes three bedrooms, a bathroom and an office. Externally to either side and to the front there are trade areas with dedicated customer seating. The pub benefits from an external bin store and a large car park to the side for circa 30 vehicles.

Historic Turnover Figures (net of VAT)

2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019
